Attesting to his power as a top politician and long time worker for the Democratic party, officials and friends from throughout the State attended Monday night's final meeting.

Each had words of praise for Pacelli, a proclaimed hater of testimonials.

Francis Patrick Pacelli, born on St. Patrick's Day 1921, married and the father of five children, had announced he would not seek re-election in today's race early last March.

Family and business interests would receive top priority from now on, Pacelli had stated.

Supervisors (Mrs.) Jean Fassler and James Fitzgerald had words of praise, noting the Board of Supervisors was drafting a special commendation to be presented to him.

Play Goes On

The cast of "You Can't Take It With You," Westmoor High School's spring production, are really rehearsing in the show business tradition of "the show must go on "

The illness of Drama Director Kenneth Brown has pulled the students closer together to work harder in the director's absence, and the cast of 20 plus stage crew of 20 are continuing daily rehearsals in anticipation of the May 4 opening.

The show had been blocked and well prepared before Brown's illness, and he is expected back before the end of the month.

The Jeff Scene

Jeff was honored with a visitor from ACT (American Conservatory Theater) recently.

This visitor, Ross Graham, spoke to interested students on all aspects of the theater. Graham has been active in the field of drama himself for 25 years and was able to give the students a good presentation. He recommended that anyone thinking about entering the theatrical field look into the program at San Francisco State College where an excellent program is offered.

SINCE LATE last year Jeff has been without a proper stage for the fine productions which have been performed in the barely adequate 507 facilities. However, now there are plans for a new stage to be installed which meet all of the specifications the previous stage which was removed last June did not. The students of the Drama Department have tried to gain their new stage and it has been requested of myself and all interested citizens to the school board and superintendant in behalf of the students.

Meanwhile the drama groups follow the old adage "the show must go on" and will present "The Doctor In Spite Of Himself" via a road show to the students of General Pershing, Vista Grande, Crocker, and Jefferson (little Jeff) elementary schools. The show is a comedy for all age groups written by Moliere in the 17th century and first performed before King Louis XIV of France with the material just as funny today as yesterday.

The cast includes David Vigil as Sgnarelle, Michelle Johnson as Martine, Keith Jacobs as Robert, Mike Dion as Geronte, Antonetta Odello as Lucinda. Angelo Guillory as Leadre, and Tony Ramsey, Bonnie Howard, and Gina Zito as Geronte's servants.

Gallery Shows State Scenes By Vardanian

Periwinkle Art Gallery on Pedro Point, Pacifica is featuring California scenes by artist Serop Vardanian through April

In addition to the launching of the new unit, members were privileged to have as their guest speaker Mrs. Robert Lanctot from the United for Life Speakers

Mrs. Mario Bosso is the chairman of the fourth annual lasagna dinner sponsored by the Congregation of St. Andrew in Daly City.

This year's benefit will be held this Saturday evening in the Parish Hall of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 80 Wellington Avenue, at 8 o'clock.

According to Mrs. William Holland, this yearly event has always been successful and guests are treated to an abundance of lasagna, tossed salad, wine, french bread, ice cream and cookies.

The evening will begin at 7 p.m. with a no-host cocktail hour. Dinner will be served at 8 p.m. and music will be provided for those who enjoy a relaxed evening with after dinner dancing.

Sister Mary Esther is the honorary chairman of the event and Mrs. Robert Gorrebesck is the cochairman. Assisting the chairmen are Mrs. Arminda Davis, Mrs. Barbara Stopnick, Mrs. Angie Ungaretti, Mrs. Alicia Clay, Mrs. Sandy Bugler, Mrs. Joe Maurino, Mrs. Ann d'Angelo and Mrs. JoAnn Russell.

Proceeds from the dinner are used to assist the financing of the congregation's Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program. Tickets, costing $2.75 per person may be reserved by calling Mrs. Russell, 756-6817.

The Abraham Lincoln Festival will be staged this Saturday in the school yard with 13 booths and innumerable surprises for the entertainment of young and old, alike.

Mrs. Bobbie Tablin is the chairman of the festival which is staged annually to raise money for the purchase of educational supplies needed by the school.

The plans call for a variety of games as well as atique booths and a coffee room for those who like to relax while the youngsters play.

Mrs. John Moran, general chairman of the Holy Angels Womens' Guild, and Mrs. Patrick Callagy, chairman of the models have released the names of the ladies who will be modeling fashions by Sears of Tanforan during this year's dinner and fashion show calendared for later this month.

Guests at the benefit, being staged in the Miyako Hotel in San Francisco, will applaud Mrs. Eugene Camous, Mrs. Thomas Duffy, Mrs. Pat Cronin, Mrs. John Evangelisti, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Gordon Mann, Mrs. Henry Norman, Mrs. James Pretti, Mrs. Vickie Tallerico and Mrs. Joseph Zanobini, as they present the very latest in women's attire.

Receiving plaudits for their pariticipation and for the fashions they will be wearing will be Earl Cesena, Dennis Flannery, Dominic Gumina, Gordon Mann, Henry Norman, Robert Padreddii, Frank Scarpino, Lou Tricerri, John Brignoli and Ronald Chiappari.

Reservations, costing $9 per person, are available from ticket chairmen Mrs. James Pretti and Mrs. Conrad Reich.

It will be the usual fun, games and delicious foods and the clever booth names when The Our Lady of Mercy debuts Holland Daze, the parish spring festival on April 27.

Richard Galliani is the general chairman of the four day event and his floor chairman will be Mrs. John Kachur who also serves as the chairman of the women's booths.

Names of the volunteers in the booths which will be presented by the members of the Westlake Catholic Women have been released and include Mrs. Albert Fambrini and Mrs. Victor Sariotti, in the sweets booth; Mrs. John Breslin and Mrs. Richard Galliani will be selling records and posters; Mrs. John Pappas is in charge of the grab bag and Mrs. Thomas Daly, Mrs. Brian Davenport, Mrs. John Crealia and Mrs. Jack Sousa will be in the panda booth.

Other workers will be Mmes. Robert Cantwell, Robert Massey, Robert Arata, John Macia, Sebastian Passanisi and Donald Tarantino serving refreshments; Mmes. Benjamin DeMain, John Minkel, Eugene Simpson and John Wallace, in the linen booth. Mmes. John Cunnie, Donald Costello, A. J. Phillips and Walter Henry will be working with the garden items and Mmes. Julian Fernando, William Murray and Peter Balestrieri will be selling things for tots.

Assisting Mrs. Kachur will be Mrs. Clyde Silverthorn and doing the publicity releases will be Mrs. Donald Gianfermo.

The Search for Talent, recently staged by the Exchange Club of Daly City, discovered some remarkably talented youngsters, according to Mrs. Patti Parks mistress of ceremonies and talent coordinator.

Judging was done in three divisions with Julie Weih placing first and Danny Miramontes second in the senior division and Sheila Loeu winning first and Alicia Vlachou finishing second in the juniors.

Primary division winners were Tammy Vlachou and Tinkere Belle Troy.

Quarter Horse Racing Bay Meadows Feature

The Bay Meadows Quarter Horse Race meet is the current main event at this fashionable San Mateo track. Quarter Horse racing is a sport of its own, and those who have yet to experience the thrill of watching them run, Tuesday through Saturday evenings, should make plans right now. Make up a party and enjoy cocktails and dinner in the Turf Club this evening. In the past three decades, the Quarter Horse has become increasingly popular with the general public and the racing fraternity. Today, lean and long limbed Quarter Horses compete in the richest stakes races in the world. As an example: Saturday, May 20, the Peninsula Horse Racing Association will present the Golden State Derby, Northern California's richest horse race ($150,000). This will be followed June 3 by the Bay Meadows Futurity with a purse of $80,000. For a new field of entertainment, try a "Night at the Races" and enjoy Quarter Horse Racing featuring the world's fastest horses - now through June 3. First race 7:45 p.m.

The European-style restaurant in downtown Menlo Park, The Mediterranee, is now open on Sundays, too, for dinner. It's aptly named because the wines are from Greece, Spain, Israel, Italy and Portugal. Hotel St. Francis' New-Look Tours Available

Public tours are now being conducted of the Hotel St. Francis' newly-completed facilities. Originating at the front desk in the new Lobby Court, the tours, which take visitors through the new ballroom, banquet rooms, given a ride in the glass enclosed elevators which travel 1,000 feet per minute, and a tour of Tower floor rooms and suites, the Dutch Kitchen and the new Carriage Entrance, are started daily from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The $44 million expansion program (doubling the room capacity of the hotel to 1,200 guest rooms) includes the new 32 story Tower and facilities. The new Tower is topped by two restaurants-Victor's and The Penthouse. Victor's, an intimate dinner room seating 125 persons, is scheduled to open in June. May 16 is the opening date set for The Penthouse, where luncheon, cocktails and dancing, featuring the new sounds of Orrin Tucker's Orchestra, will be the attractions. The Hotel St. Francis, a Western International Hotel (the third largest hotel chain in the world), has been in continuous operation since 1904.

Bertolucci's Favorite Stop For Robert Wagner

Seen dining at Bertolucci's one recent Saturday night was film star Robert Wagner, who dropped in for some of Mamma Bertolucci's famous raviolis. Also in the party were Giants' Manager Charlie Fox and restaurant host Larry Bertolucci (plus young ladies asking for autographs) . . . Scotty Campbell's Is An Award-Winning Site

Emphasis is on Highland decor in the three dining areas at Scotty Campbell's, an award-winning restaurant in Redwood City. There's the Fireplace Room, the Red Room and the Bonnie Dee - and a comfortable atmosphere prevails in each. Uniformed waitresses in checkered kilties, knee socks, tartans that represent the various clans, and perky Scottish head gear add just the right amount of feminine leif-motif. Steaks and Prime Rib of Beef (the way you like it) is the specialty. However, if you order Scampi or Lobster Tail you will see how versatile Scotty Campbell's chefs really are ... A. Sabella's at Fisherman's Wharf is a popular dinner stop for theatergoers. It's not unusual for patrons to arrive early in order to watch the bustling action on Fisherman's Wharf, which can be enjoyed from any table in the dining room or lounge. The menu suggests many seafood dishes, a choice of meats, chicken prepared most any way, and salads for the dieter (although the portions are generous) . . . Seen dining at La Cigogne was Giants' outfielder Bobby Bonds. The National League's next super-star dropped in the San Mateo restaurant for a chat with co-owner Norbert Wagner.

Nick's Restaurants And Lounges

The Combination Plate featured on the "2 for the price of 1" coupon special at Nick Gust's Papagayo Room, overlooking the surf at Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, has to be one of the largest ever. Measuring at least a foot and a half in diameter, it is loaded with juicy taco, cheese-covered enchilada, rice, refried beans and a chile relleno. To some diners, it is considered a meal in itself . . . Don't miss out on the new Sunday Brunch now being featured from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. each Sunday in the plush nauticaul surroundings of The Moonraker, located just upstairs from the Papagayo Room. It's a repast for sure . . . For food, fun and congeniality Nick's Restaurant and Lounge (across the street) is the frequent party center for countless numbers. People come from all over the Bay Area to relax in one of Nick Gust's dining meccas. Join the crowds, you won't be sorry ... Sick call: Missing from the local restaurant scene over the holiday weekend was Phyllis Alioto. The effervescent owner of Millbrae's Blue Peacock spent a few days in a San Francisco hospital. It's nothing serious, but her employees missed her cheerful presence.

A Pair of Eagles in San Bruno

In recent joint ceremonies by Boy Scout Troop 275 and Ex-plorer Post 275 of San Bruno, Scott Dobbins and Curtis Thompson each received their Eagle Scout award, the highest honor in Scouting.

This award is earned only after years of diligent application of the principles of Scouting and the attainment of the various levels of Scouting, resulting in the award of Second Class, First Class, Star and Life Badges.

The recipient of this award must also qualify in 21 different fields of Scouting knowledge in the merit badge area in addition to achieving the other Scouting levels.

To culminate their endeavors each Eagle Scout aspirant must formulate and carry out a special Eagle Scout service

The ceremony was an unusual merging of Courts of Honor by the Boy Scout Troop and Explorer Post, and although each bears the designation of 275, they are separate entities and involve distinct and diverse areas. The presentation had a special meaning and double importance to the families of Scott and Curtis, for the fathers, Robert A. In the presentation phase of the ceremony, Albert Horn, president of the San Mateo Scout Council, made the presentation of the Eagle awards to Scott Dobbins and Curtis Thompson, and spoke glowingly of the efforts and dedication of both of these youths in achieving this coveted honor.

Happiness

Happiness is having facts and figures on hand when you need them. Libraries are places full of facts and figures, and a librarian is like a character created by Dickens who cried, "Look here, upon my soul you must come into the place saying you want to know.'

Recently, a senior citizens' organization called for a directory of retirement homes, but not retirement communities or convalescent homes. In five minutes the reference librarian at the Daly City Public Library furnished the list. On the other hand, a retired citizen of Daly City chose as a hobby, building replicas of medieval castles and asked for pictures, dimensions, and even specifications of medieval castles built duing the period 500-1450 A.D. Through the Peninsula Library System he found the materials he needed.

It is the very questions that people ask that make a reference librarian's life interesting: "What's the best way to store sugar, flour, rice and beans?" "Where can I learn how to paint with acrylics?" "Who was Hugo Hofmann von Hofmannsthal?" "How do they build a prison yard?"

A female student at a nearby university asked her reference librarian to help her write a paper on the psychological aspects of sports. "What," she asked, "Makes athletes tick and what is team spirit or team unity?" Another female student asked for a book on physical culture that would help her change her appearance so she would look more like Barbara Stan-ywck. A high school boy asked for informaion on how to make a dune buggy from a Volkswagen chassis. Another one said he was building a boat for water skiing and wanted to know the ratio of weight of the boat to the horsepower that the engine required

Supplying knowledge has become one of the largest activities of a public library. Consequently, reference collections have outgrown the space that was once allotted to them. Where once there were rows of general encyclopedias, there are bright new handbooks on such subjects as stocks and bonds, statistics, engineering, medical sciences, and at least a hundred other subjects.

Reference librarians will not attempt to answer some questions, especially those connected with medicine and law. Some questions are beyond the scope of a local library and must be referred to larger libraries.

To this end, all the public libraries in San Mateo County, except South San Francisco and Menlo Park, have established an Area Library in San Mateo. For it they have purchased many books that contain information that is not required by the public every day of the week. Among them are such books as foreign language encyclopedias, a register of all the grocery stores in the United States, bibliographies of world wide arts and sciences and even an idea source guide.

All the information in the Area Library is as close to a patron of any library that is a member of the Peninsula Library System, as the library's teletype.

If the Area Library cannot answer a reference question, it refers it to a super area library in San Francisco, known as the Bay Area Reference Center (BARC). In five years BARC has answered all questions, except ten or fifteen. This record is wonderful because all the public libraries in nine Bay Area counties use BARC. To increase its usefulness to the people of the cities around the Bay, BARC can contact by the latest methods nearly every major library in the United States and obtain desired information in a few minutes.

So, you see, happiness is having facts and figures on hand when you need them. Contact your public li-

Although the flow is strictly controlled by the Soviet government, some observers have predicted that 30,000 more would leave this year if permitted to do so.

If one accepts the number of my of the Soviet people." Soviet Jews as 21/2 million, the pure numbers are impressive. But the story of this migration is far more meaningful than numbers alone.

Jews are, without question, underprivileged members of Soviet society. While their faith is one of eleven recognized religions in the USSR, Judaism is the least equal among "equals."

Deprived of any national or regional organization, each synagogue lives its own isolated life. Rabbinical training is severely limited and 100 synagogues are reported as operating without rabbis. Religious articles and food are difficult to obtain.

Cultural life is strictly circumscribed, and unlike other national minorities, Jews do not have a single school that teaches Yiddish or Hebrew. But the cunning and ambivalence of Soviet policy must be understood. On the one hand they seek to agnosticize the Jews and to assimilate them into Soviet society. FINAL INSPECTION — Ron Berry gives camper final inspection before he lets it leave his lot. More than 100,000 recreation vehicles are now registered in state. 1972 will be another boom year, Berry predicts.

Roughing It Our Way

By FRANK LaPIERRE

This year millions of Americans will return to the great out-of-doors where they will "rough it" amidst modern conveniences not unlike those left at home.

Of course the number of "conveniences" will be dependent on the amount of money they in-

The twilight of the canvas pup tent is upon us.

More and more vacationers are now interested in taking some of the creature comforts along with them as they "camp out" in any of the thousands of sites now available around the

Last year in California there were more than 100,000 recreational vehicles registered. This figure does not include boats and boat trailers.

So great is today's demand for camper trucks, camp trailers and the relatively new single unit camper homes that manufacturers are experiencing difficulties in supplying dealers.

Ron Berry, official of a South San Francisco camper company, points to vacant spaces on the floor of the company's 100,-000-square-foot enclosed showroom.

"The public is surpassing even the most optimistic expectations of only a few months ago. Manufacturers just were not prepared for such a demand," Berry says.

There is no single biggest seller in the camper line, according to Berry, who is referred to by fellow employees as the "chief cook and bottle washer" around the compamy.

Berry predicts the next five years will record the greatest increase in this field as more and more persons either buy, lease or rent the leisure time vehicles.

Prices range from $1600 for a 16-foot camping trailer with all the basic furnishings (sink, stove, heater, ice box) to the $25,000 self-contained single unit camper, which is actually a home away from home.

The top price line has air conditioning, heater, shower and bath, toilet, sofas, self-contained water supply good for five days, carpets, drapes and more.

And to top it off any person the little woman included - can operate these mobile palaces, Berry said.

Each vehicle is equipped with power steering, power brakes, adjustable bucket seats, stereo eystem radios and every feature now found in average passenger

Berry thinks the current camper boom can be traced to what he calls "an escapist trend coupled with more leisure time."

People want to return to nature, but many did not want to give up every basic comfort to do it, Berry said.

"The wife just doesn't want to live in a pup tent on her vacation and wash dishes in a bucket," he said.

Who buys these campers? Berry was asked.

"There is really no one group or person. People budget money for their vacation, for their recreation, throughout the year. Nowadays people seem to have more disposable income to invest in recreation," he said.

Basically, the camper customer is from the middle class group, records indicate.

Last week Berry's company sold one of its best campers to a Saudi Arabian prince for a price in excess of $25,000. He asked his name not be published. Berry said the prince was fond of hunting and wanted to take the craft on his worldwide exhibitions. He paid cash for the camper. Today, campsites in the state are now preparing for the influx of summer vacationers. Officials at key sites - such as Yosemite and Lake Tahoe - think this year will be even bigger than last, itself a "boom year" for campers.

And the Race Continues On

AND THE RACE goes on - Now comes an avalanche of "Archie Bunker for President" stuff. Buttons, bumper strips, etc. The latest bumper strip reads "In your heart you know he's FAR right."

WE AIN'T NO LAWYER but we can't help wonder about those two pre-election election statements -one from that Teamster official warning Brisbane voters they had better not vote in that truck ban ordinance, and the other warning about property taxes in Colma unless the three incumbents are returned to office. In the latter, you guessed it, Mayor Raymond Ottoboni made the prediction.

OF COURSE, the D.A. probably has other things to do such as checking out who calls whom on county phones and such other infractions of the law.

FLASHY FLASH — It seems San Bruno's Tony Governale didn't have that labor endorsement all sewed up as some folks would have us believe. We now hear that Daly City's Louis Papan, in the Assembly race representing the Democrats along with Governale, will also get the labor nod. It isn't often labor splits its endorsement, but we guess it does happen.

SORRY ABOUT THAT FOLKS-Enough already! Those phone calls came in so we hotfooted it back to the TLC restaurant at the Westlake Bowl in Daly City to recheck our initial glowing praises. We found, as the phone calls said we would, a jam of teenyboppers all in a row, jawing at tables with their date of the day, and all around bedlam created by teen-aged loiterers. If you don't mind that sort of thing the 'burgers are great. Personally we don't like teen hangouts.

THE OTHER SIDE — Mary's Help Hospital's Rex Chase and others want to present their side. Our criticism of their emergency room in these yellowed pages the other week prompted the reply. There is a group of ten doctors on duty (not on call) around the clock on a rotating basis at M.H. Plus, residents and interns and nurses. There is also a full staff on call day and night.

M.H.H. IS A CLASS ONE hospital, the only such class one facility in San Mateo County. There were 2,067 trauma type emergency cases (dope overdose, accidents, heart attacks) treated last year. On drugs they do not call the fuzz. This encourages the use of the facility, it was explained. And we agree it's a good system.

THE REASONING BEHIND the initial interview when a patient checks into emergency is to get all minute details out of the way before the doctor checks the person. This allows him to get right to the point, they say. And it also sets up a priority list of who gets treated first.

OUR ARGUMENT STANDS — It may be only a bump on the head, but it happens to be OUR head and that's important to US. Why can't a trained nurse immediately check out an injury. You'll never convince me that a man sitting behind a counter behind a typewriter can evaluate an injury. As Rex Chase acknowledged — M.H.H. is good, very good, but everything can be improved.

WE HAD FEW friends in Daly City, today we have less. Suddeny our friend Ricco Lagomarsino is gone. We talked with him one day last week, much the same as we talked to him many times in the past at one function or another — usually at a bank opening. He was a hard worker, perhaps too hard. Hours before his death Monday morning, he was at his Mission Street office opening mail and answering letters. From a humble beginning as a temporary cemetery worker at age 15, Ricco built a prospering business with his brother Bill. Portly and smiling. Sharp and whitty. Yes, and even bullheaded when he felt he was right. That Was Ricco Lagomarsino, one of the last of a vanished breed of Daly Cityites.

AND WHAT WILL we do without Ray Logan to knock the props out from under us now and again. Ray left the city he loved to move to an area he loves equally-the great out-of-doors up Placerville way. The least he could have done before he left was send the gang his address so we could all stop by and see him during our trips to Lake Tahoe. But that's Ray Logan—cheap. (The foregoing was misprinted from Daly City Host Lion Bob Bernicchi's farewell-to-Ray column in The Lions Roar bulletin.)

FOLKS OUT DALY CITY way are still condemning the Board of Supervisors for their "quickie" move to pull the D.C. muni courthouse out of the city and move it to South City's new facilities. In the recent Chamber of Commerce bulletin, the supervisors were soundly whomped.

Such phrases as "the people of our area were really given the shaft after some 40 years of court service in the area" was used.

The writer of the bulletin even charged the supervisors with ignoring the democratic process (and the GOP process too) in giving only 24 hours notice that a hearing would be held on the issue and then turning a deaf ear to requests to keep the court in D.C.

Learning From Troubles

There are individuals who learn from your troubles.

Whenever a serious traffic accident occurs on a street or freeway near the campus of Stanford University, a group of Stanford researchers typically piles into a specially-equipped truck and heads for the

The researchers, part of the Stanford Crash Analysis Team, SCAT, want to get details on as many types of accidents as possible. The team, one of 15 throughout the nation operates under a government contract and has investigated 53 accidents in the 11/2 years since it was formed. The analysis made by the five-man team is sent to the U.S. Department of Transportation, which then takes the reports to auto manufacturers or, if a highway deficiency is found, to the appropriate highway agency.

There are criteria which must be met before the SCAT team goes to the scene of an accident. A 1969 or later auto must be involved and there must be heavy damage to the car.

There must also be an equal distribution of fatality, injury and property-damage accidents so that analysis won't be overweighted in any one area.

SCAT acknowledges that traffic accidents cannot be avoided, but wants to minimize the risk of driver-passenger injury.

"It is easier to improve the vehicle than change everyone's personalities or reconstruct all the roadways said Dr. Donald Nagel, chief of orthopedic surgery at Stanford Medical Center and the principal investigator for SCAT.

"Improving the vehicle may provide the greatest payoff in terms of highway safety in the shortest period of time with the smallest investment of money," he said.

"On the premise that we cannot prevent impact, we direct our attention to preventing peak forces applied to the body on impact," Nagel said. "We have found several specifics that cause injuries."

Among those, he said, were sharp-edged auto radios, unpadded dashboards and inadequate bumpers.

South San Francisco High pitcher Terry Hendley has this thing about two-hitters - even when he's only the relief pitch-Hendley and righthander Rick Haggstrom combined for a neat two-hitter and a 5-0 blanking of Westmoor High School to highlight on Friday's North Peninsula League action.

In other conference games, Terra Nova stayed right with SSF by downing winless Serramonte, 10-1, while El Camino exploded against Jefferson, 12-1, and Half Moon Bay rallied for an eight inning, 8-7 victory over winless Oceana.

The junior righthander, who has two consecutive two-hitter in NPL play and two others in practice games, came in to pitch the sixth and seventh innings against the Rams. Noticing that Haggstrom had a onehitter at the time, gave up one more hit to even things out.

The only safety off Haggstrom was a two-strike, broken bat infield single. He struck out three and walked five in his stint. The Rams made six errors behind four-run SSF outburst was untainted by Westmoor miscues.

Hank Love walked to open the sixth and advanced on Hendley's single. Steve Linamen's single scored one run before Rob Goldstein hit a three-run homer over the Orange Park cones. Two errors, a stolen base and an infield out had given SSF a 1-0 lead in the second.

Sophomore lefthander Steve Shirley fired a three-hitter at Serramonte as the Tigers won their third game of the season. Shirley struck out eight and was Tigers exploded for six Regent-killing runs.

Steve Humphrey walked to start things off and Jeff Simons doubled him home. A passed ball and Lee Shackleford's sacrifice fly scored another. Mike Taylor then blasted a solo homer for a third run. A hit batter and singles by Lee Johnson, Dave Bier and Mike LaCosta finished them off.

Righthander Tom Horiye's pitching and long-ball hitting propelled El Camino to sole possession of second place. Horiye and the solo run came on a tremendous home run by Jeff's Ken Smith.

Camino, though, put together a power hitting display of its own. In the fourth Rich Wright hit a solo homer and after Phil Marty's double Rudy Castellanos hit a two-run homer to put the Colts up, 5-0. Three more runs in the fifth spelled the end for the Indians.

Camino also benefited from pitching infractions in the seventh as the Jefferson relief pitcher balked in three runs.

late as the fifth inning, came on strong in the latter stages to pull a victory from the jaws of defeat. The Cougars, in fact, were down to their last strike in the bottom of the seventh when Tom Bettencourt's two-run single scored Frankie Reyes and Jay Alves to tie the game and send it into overtime. Ron Stockmen was hit by a pitch in the eighth, stole second and Dennis Avila's sharp single to left scored Stockman with the winning run.

Reyes had a fantastic day.

Probably the best hitter in the league already. Reyes and nothing to dispel the fact as he had a perfect four-for-four including a two run homer and a triple with three RBIs He also. picked up the victory with four innings of shutout relief. Avila drove in three runs with a double and a triple to add to Bettencourt's seventh inning.

two-run single. Sophomore Tony Scoma went six-plus innings for the Sharks, now 0-3, but the loss went to another soph, Tony Diamond.

Landslide victories were again recorded as South San Francisco (the fittest) smashed Oceana 79-13 and Terra Nova (the next-fittest) swarmed over Jefferson, 62-18.

With only two weeks of competition left, undefeated SSF looks to take his eighth NPL championship in ten years. The Warriors will probably be closely followed by Terra Nova. The Tigers' only loss was to the Warriors, on March 24.

But don't count Terra Nova out yet - even if SSF continues its winning ways. If the strong Terra Nova team is successful in the NPL Finals April 25, the first place cup will be shared by the two schools.

This Friday's upcoming competition features Oceana at Terra Nova and SSF at El Camino, with Jefferson receiving a bye.

Terra Nova coach Monty Iwanga says there is a possibility that he may move some of his sophomore sensations up to varsity to bolster his forces. But he insists he will not do so at the cost if an almost sure frosh-soph competition victory

South San Francisco Coach Pete Giachetti expected that his team, a perennial NPL power. would be building this year.

"I thought Westmoor would take it this year," he said.

Westmoor may take it yet; the Rams protested the meet after some alleged jostling be-tween South San Francisco's Alex Cano and the Rams' John Wilson in the 200 yards of the 9:53.6 to Wilson's 9:58.4.

Supposedly there will be a film review. However, Giachetti said that the videotape, which both coaches watched afterare on their way again.

Tired of Reading Of the Strike

As we write this, we have no way of knowing whether major dles, Don Pemberton took the league baseball is being played. We also know that you may by mile (4:34 1) and Randy Park now be tired of reading about the thing. And we certainly know cleared 13 feet in the pole vault that it would be presumptuous of this writer to even attempt a for the first time in his life to comprehensive analysis of a problem which has stumped even the best baseball minds; assuming that baseball minds are among the best minds. But being a sports columnist and a long-time baseball fan longer races for the Bearcats, yes, folks, we loved the Giants even when they were in New York - we feel it incumbent upon us to say something. What follows therefore is not anything close to a comprehensive analysis, but just some random thoughts and comments by the writer and other interested parties. What first must be understood is that for one of the few times in our existence, we are on management's side. Philosophically, we believe in strikes only as a last resort, only when every other avenue of negotiation has been exhausted, and only when work conditions are so intolerable that desperate measures must be taken. A strike is a desperate measure. And it's the last reasonable measure a man may take, so he should use it judiciously, because when that one's gone and hasn't worked, man, there ain't no more. It's sort of like a fighter wasting his best, most strength-consuming flurry early in the fight when his opponent is still fresh, rather than holding it 'til the end, when his enemy is weaker. If it doesn't work in the early round, if it's his best shot and it doesn't work, what does he use for an encore?

Now, we don't believe there is one professional baseball player in the United States who is working under intolerable conditwo mile. Cano won, running tions, who is oppressed, or who - despite what Curt Flood and Arthur Goldberg say - is a slave. They all sign the same contracts and they all know what they're about, and they all know the history of them. And we never heard of a slave with a guaranteed minimum annual contract of $13,500, for six months work. My God, that's much better than the average schoolteach-Instruction will be held on ward, was inconclusive. Mean- er or plumber makes after he's been on the job for years and May 9, 10, 11, 16, 17 and 18, while, it looks like the Warriors become highly competent. sits on a bench for six months can earn $13,500. Plus benefits that plumbers and schoolteachers never heard of. A lot of people in this country would skip the salary just for the pension plan, which is the finest in the history of the world (sit on a bench for four years and you start collecting $174 a month for life at age 45), and which, ironically, is the bone of contention in the strike.

What the players are against, basically, is free enterprise. You see, they won't be happy until they are making all of the Crestmoor catcher's wild pickprofits and all the owners are breaking even. They obviously off attempt. believe that it is at the least immoral for owners to make a profit, and dictatorial to make a LOT of profit. And that is what were at it again in the third. the owners are fighting for — not money, but a principle. The Clark Anderson ripped a one-out builded in the state of the country and the country and the state of the country and the c players have said that it will cost the owners only $11,000 a club single into centerfield and to give the players what they want (how many players, by the scampered to second when) way, who give up $11,000 of their salary to make another party teammate Bill Kell was thrown salary to make another party happy?), and in truth, that would be a low price to pay for the out at the plate. Another pair of start of the baseball season. Owners will obviously lose more Crestmoor boners, and Anderthan that if one game is cancelled. But what the owners are son was home free. fighting is the $22,000 per club the players will be asking for next Meanwhile, the Falcons were year, and the $33,000 the year after, and . . .

The players seem to forget that if some men, or corporations, Scheppler allowed the Birds Mills weren't willing to invest in baseball, gamble huge chunks of only three scattered hits, and Burlingame money in the game, the players wouldn't have jobs. How many when Crestmoor did get runners players, after all, have investments in their teams? They want on, it seemed the umps had it in none of the risk of big league baseball, and all of the benefits.

It's a fact that one of the worst investments a businessmar can make today is in professonal sports. Few teams show profits, and very few make BIG profits. If Horace Stoneham, for plays that even the Burlingame loss contains and the profits of th instance, had put as much money, energy and time into, say, a motel chain, as he has put into the Giants over the years, he would be much richer than he is now.

Of course, the smart guys will answer, then why do so many men and corporations buy into baseball? There is, to be sure, the tax write-off gimmick. But more often than not, the men, surprisingly, are true sportsmen. Oh, sure, they enjoy the power and the prestige; the really rich men love to play with their toys. But basically, they are sportsmen and, in their capacity as owners of a professional sports team, at least, they are seldom businessmen in the true sense of the word. If they were acting purely as such, their accountants would hang themselves from the nearest jock strap.

Rip Sewell, the old Pittsburgh blooper ball pitcher, may have best summed up the situation last week when he said, "First the players wanted a hamburger and they (the owners) gave them the hamburger. Then they wanted the filet mignon and they gave them the filet mignon. Then they wanted the whole damn cow and now that they got the cow they want a pasture to put him in. You just can't satisfy them . . .

Ed Runge, retired American League umpire, put it more bluntly when he said, "I think they're nuts. Eighty percent of them couldn't make a living outside baseball."

And an anonymous former minor leaguer of our acquaintance put it bluntest of all. "Hell, with expansion, one third of those guys are lucky they're even able to make a living IN baseball."

A footnote to the above, which has some relevance kicking somewhere around in it. In a recent article in "Today's Health" by triple Olympic gold medal winner Jesse Owens, Owens said, "Games are only a part of life — even for those who make their living from them . . . games are to play."

We have a proposal: A college draft of high school student athletes. But kids have a right to an education of their choosing, you say? Yes, that's right. But why, then, don't college graduates have a right to an employee of their choosing if they wish to enter professional sports? But that's different, you say? In the pros the kids at least get paid very well for what they do, and are loaded down with fringe benefits. Well, we're waiting for the

And as we wait, we are reminded of the story that Hugh McElhenny took a cut in pay when he went from the University of Washington to the 49ers. One magazine piece claimed that Hugh followed a trail of $20 bills from Comton JC to Washington, and we don't think the author of the article was kidding.

Latest thing in fringe benefits for entering college hot-shots, according to recent revelations in the national press, is girls. Yes, that's right. Coaches, or their agents in some high-powered jock institutions, as special inducements for enrollment, are now literally procuring girls for their really big stars.

In our day, we would have been satisfied with a chocolate malt and a Marilyn Monroe calendar.

LOCAL NOTE: Terra Nova's Norm Lacy was recently selected as an Honorable Mention on the Scholastic Coach magazine's 1971 All-American high school football squad. It marked the first time for a Terra Nova player to be so honored.

Lacy's wrestling teammate, Ray Wasche, broke a national scholastic record this past grappling season when he pinned 35 opponents, most high school shoulders-to-the-mat in prep history. Wasch wrestled at 136.

S.M. Schools Office Will Be Moved

Plans to move the county schools office out of the County Government Center in Redwood City into a new building of its own were approved Wednesday by the County Board of Education.

The board authorized County Superintendent of Schools J. Russell Kent to sign a contract with the Carl Swenson Company of San Jose for construction of a building to house the county department under a long-term lease.

The structure will be on the northeast corner of Main Street and Veterans Boulevard about four blocks from the present headquarters.

The department has been studying housing alternatives for six months following notification by County Manager M. D. Tarshes that the space is needed by other departments. The schools office is independent of county government and has been paying rent for the space it occupies in the county center. Tarshes said plans for use of the vacated space are not definite.

The agreement with the Swenson company is that the structure will have a maximum of 40,000 square feet and that the monthly rental will not exceed cents a square foot per month.

It is to be a one-story building of tilt-up construction, probably with a basement parking area It will have an open interior with provision for movable acoustic partitions. The tentative schedule calls for one or two months of planning and three or four months for construction, with occupancy possible by fall.

The department's audiovisual, vocational education and ecial education divisions, now in rented quarters nearby, will move into the new building.

Deadly Ride On Birthday

John E. Cayafes, 2808 Tra-manto Drive, San Carlos, a senior at San Carlos High School, rented a high-powered motorcycle on his eighteenth birthday last week and died instantly when the bike crashed into a power pole on Edgewood Road west of Redwood City, the California Highway Patrol reported

The accident was one of a series in the county last week, mest of which involved motorcycles, officers reported.

CHP Officer Don Bossingham said Cayafes, who was treasurer of the Sons of Pericles in San Mateo and an employe of a Belmont restaurant, was eastbound on Edgewood Road at a rapid speed when the dragging kickstand of the motorcycle dug into the pavement, causing him to lose control on a curve, hit the pole and catapult over a chain link fence.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Sequoia Hospital. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Cayafes

Theresa E. Turiello, 18, of 554
Jeter Street, Redwood City, and
Lawrence N. Teall, 25, of 641 Spruce Street, Redwood City, were seriously injured when the motorcycle they were riding crashed shortly before 4 a.m. in the morning on La Honda Road near Skyline Boulevard, patrolmen said. Miss Turiello was admitted to Sequoia Hospital with a possible fractured spine, an injured left foot and hand, while Teall was hospitalized with a chest injury and other hurts.

's Hendley Hero Again: Two-Hitter

By JERRY LITTRELL

As expected, south San Francisco and away to a slight edge as North Peninsula League baseball entered its first full week last week with a three-game schedule.

Only Westmoor and Serramonte High this afternoon at Marchbank Field.

The Warriors rallied for a four-run fifth inning to upend host Half Moon Bay, 5-1, while Terra Nova got by sticky El Camino, 3-1. Jefferson lambasted winless Oceana, ond run.

walked, Lee Shackleford did likewise and Mike Lacosta's single drove in one run.

Jefferson's bats have really been red-hot lately. The Indians scored 15 runs against Serramonte in the final round of the Daly City Lions Easter Invitational last week and came right back yesterday to score 16 more against Oceana (0-2).

There were a total of 20 walks, 20 hits The Tigers went ahead 3-0 in the fourth and six errors in the long game as neither when Dave Bier singled, Mike Myers was Jeff starter Ken Smith or Oceana hurler hit by a pitch and on Humphrey's ensuing Jim Romero could stick around long enough single an outfield error allowed one run to for the victory.
